Atlantic City, Del.

A letter was received yesterday from a prominent Wheeling gentleman who is spending his vacation in Atlantic City.

He says the gloom cast over that resort by the recent railroad accident is driving the crowds to their homes or to other pleasure resorts. The crowd is very slim and the beach seems very dull compared with the former seasons.

The bathing is good despite the cold water.

An Interesting Exhibit.

At the Mutual Savings bank, on Market street, can be seen a novel exhibit of coins, which is especially timely on account of the interest taken in the money question this year. Nearly all the coins of the country are to be seen here, including many pieces that are nearly obsolete, including the three-dollar gold piece and twenty-five cent gold coin. A feature is the showing of the face value of the coins and the value of the metal in the market.

The exhibit has been inspected by many people.

A New Beer Tapper.

The Schmulbach Brewing Company has secured the right to use a patent beer tapping arrangement in Wheeling and vicinity, that will no doubt prove useful to sportsmen who have always dreaded the tapping of beer. The new arrangement consists of a rubber tube about one inch and a half long and just large enough to fit into the bung of the barrel. This is placed over the bung and the tapping tube is inserted by merely pressing on it. All the barrels and half barrels of the company are being fitted for the new process.

A Great Contest.

A great deal of interest is being manifest among the butchers regarding the beef dressing contest which is to take place during the Butchers' picnic tomorrow. The contestants are William Henry, of Wheeling, who is backed by Captain Arch Goodhue and Charles

Kohrig, and William Cilles, of Bridgeport, backed by Henry Cilles and Fred Wellingker. The contestant who dresses a beef in the least time will win, and the premium is $500. Mr. Henry is recognized as the swiftest beef dresser in Wheeling, and Mr. Cilles is the crack butcher of Bridgeport. Much money will change hands on the result of the contest.

A Temperance Lecture.

Yesterday afternoon about 6 o'clock a man who gave his name as Ezra Bissitt, of Benwood, rushed into the city building and tried to break open the door leading into the gas office. Chief Bennett heard the racket and came out and inquired what was the matter.

The gentleman from Marshall county answered that he had been working for the Natural Gas Company for a week and as it was Saturday night he wanted his "dough." He had evidently been imbibing freely from the flowing bowl, and had been asleep for forty-eight hours, and awoke to find another week upon him. He wouldn't take "no" for an answer and the chief had to lock him up.

 He will explain to His Honor this morning.

BRILLIANT FAILS.

The Brilliant Iron Works in the Hands of an Assignee.

PITTSBURGH AND WHEELING

Stockholders Were at Loggerheads, Thus Precipitating the Trouble Which Resulted in the Company Going to the Wall—Mr. Cook Makes a Statement of the Difficulty—The Liabilities do not Equal the Assets—Full Details of the Assignment.

It was a great surprise in business circles yesterday to learn that the Brillant Pipe and Tube Works Company had made an assignment at 4:00 a. m. and John S. McMahers was made assignee. This firm was looked on as being one of the most solid in the valley, as the officers and directors were experienced and wealthy and they would have made the plant a success if internal dissensions among the stockholders had not arisen as to the policy.

The Pittsburgh stockholders, Messrs.
 Joseph R. Jackson and Thomas Hackett and the Wheeling stockholders were at loggerheads over the question whether the tube works should be built and other matters. For some days iron and scrap have been shipped away to pay off the general creditors and on Monday some excitement was caused at Brilliant by the citizens seeing a large load of pig iron and some rolls which were taken out of the mill and placed in a heap labeled "This is the property of the Tennessee Coal and Iron Company." The miners were taken out after going to work and the mules taken out. The deed of assignment includes the personal and real property and machinery and all privileges of the company.

Mr. Cook's Statement.

Hon. J. M. Cook, of Steubenville, who is attorney in the case, makes the following statement about the condition of the business affairs of the company. The company was incorporated under the laws of West Virginia last fall and the stockholders are not personally liable.
 The mill began work last December and has run ever since with several cessations. The Brilliant Tube and Pipe Works Company is composed of Joseph R. Jackson and Thomas Hackett, of Pittsburgh, and parties from Wheeling, of whom Joseph Speldel and George K.
 Wheat are the principal ones. Hackett and Jackson each had $20,000 in the business and the Wheeling parties $20,000; of this $60,000 there was expended $30,000 upon improvements, leaving a working capital of $30,000. The business in which they were engaged was making pipe iron and muck bar. This department of the iron business has been had during the last year and the $16,000 of working capital was soon swallowed. The Wheeling parties were the same interested in the Brilliant Iron & Steel Company, from whom the property was originally purchased by the Brilliant Tube and Pipe Company. At the time of the purchase the Brilliant Iron and Steel Company received $15,000 cash and two notes for $7,500 each, payable in one and two years, and in addition the Brilliant Tube and Pipe Company assumed the payment of the old mortgage against the Brilliant Iron and Steel Company upon the property of about $10,000, of which $4,000 has been paid by the present company. The Wheeling parties have received $34,000 as improvements upon the property and $13,000 in cash, making nearly $48,000, and as they put into the concern but $20,000 they have done pretty well. One of the notes of $7,500 became due August 4th, and the Wheeling parties refused absolutely to extend the time of payment, and as there was about $20,000 due general creditors, Messrs. Jackson and Hackett, president and secretary of the company, did transfer the personal property to these creditors the past week to pay claims which were due with the exception of about $2,000. Before the transfers there was a general indebtedness of $30,000. The capital stock was $200,000 made up of the $60,000 cash and real estate and machinery and was divided, two-thirds being owned by Jackson and Hackett and one-third by Wheeling parties. Their indebtedness is $75,000, and their assets about $100,000.

The Other Side.

Hon. J. Dunbar, counsel for the Wheeling stockholders of the Brilliant Tube and Pipe works, was seen by a Steubenville Star representative. Mr.
 Dunbar said the action of Jackson and Hackett was a complete surprise to Messrs. Speldel, Wheat and the other Wheeling stockholders, and was done without consulting any of them. There was to have been a directors' meeting at Wellburg yesterday, and Messrs.
 Speldel and Wheat came up to attend the meeting. On arriving at Brilliant Mr. Jackson could not be found and Mr. Hackett claimed to know nothing of his whereabouts. It was then that the Wheeling men learned that much of the personal property had been laden in cars and shipped away, and Speldel and Wheat took the next train for Steubenville to consult their attorney.
 While here they met Jackson, and Mr.
 Cook informed them that if they made a move Mr. Jackson was prepared to ask for a receiver in twenty minutes time. The Wheeling stockholders realized that they were behind time and that it was too late to do anything even if they wished and they took the train for home. They charged fault on the part of Jackson and his counsel and thus the matter ends. Mr. Dunbar states that when the corporation was organized Messrs. Jackson and Hackett agreed to put in $30,000 each, making the paid up capital $80,000, and had they done so the Wheeling stockholders would have come up with more money and the works would have come on.
 Mr. Dunbar spoke in very plain terms concerning Jackson and his methods.
